

Individual Client Questionnaire

Enclosed are five pages of questions that we are requesting every client complete and return with your tax documents in order for us to accurately prepare your individual returns.

This is the only portion of the client organizer that we are requiring you to complete. If you received a full organizer in the mail, you may complete the entire document if you prefer, but only the five pages of questions are required.

You may print off and return the completed form to us with your client documentation via mail, our ShareFile secure file transfer system, your client portal, or feel free to drop them off in person.

We encourage you to turn in your tax documents as early as possible!
